

ABSTRACT

Methods and compositions are described that are useful for diagnosing and/or treating disease arising from unwanted cell growth, preferably cancer, involving

- 5 diagnosing cells for stabilized beta-catenin, or treating cells with compounds that disrupt or alter the formation of a complex consisting of beta-catenin/transcription factor, where the transcription factor is a member of the Lef/Tcf family.

//

//

10 //

//

//

//

//

15 //

//

//

//

//

20 //

//

//

//

//

25 //

//

//

//

//

30 //

//

//